Motion carried by voice vote, all in favor.

Discussion:

- 1) Medical Marijuana – input from Mike Jester –MTA – MM Act. Legislature has passed a bill allowing dispensaries in state of MI. Authority has been turned over to local government to write ordinances. First step – Do you want a dispensary? Number of dispensaries?
 - A. No applications for licensing before 12/15/2017.
 - B. Three (3) types of licenses: Class A, B and C.
 - C. Permit to local government – can charge up to $5,000.00 per year.
 - D. State will track marijuana – cameras, hours, location (should be in ordinance).
 - E. Crime for MM people growing in their house.
 - F. Look in Colorado ordinance for dispensaries.
 - G. Less crime in dispensaries than in party stores.
 - H. No increase in crime activity.
 - I. Put a flyer in tax bills asking if residents are for or against MM.
 - J. MM will be taxed.

- K. Class A license - $500 Class B license - $1000 Class C license - $1500
 - L. Licenses limit how many plants could be grown.
 - M. How will this address caregivers?
 - N. Kurt is going to address a survey to be sent to residences w/February billings.
 - O. Caregiver can grow 12 plants per patient
 - P. Can be grown outdoors (per privacy fence so not visible to neighbors).
- 2) Portable toilets – It was already voted on in November 2016. Let the ordinance stand as is and let the Board of Trustees decide.
 - 3) Unsafe buildings – (2006 International Building Code)
Section 115 – Section 116 – Section 117 – Construction Code Book
 - 4) Business registration in Leoni – Passed Planning Commission in 2010 – Kurt is following up on this.
 - 5) Next meeting we’ll work on blight ordinance & store fronts.

Motion by Southworth, supported by Cole to adjourn at 7:55 p.m.

Motion carried.

Judy Southworth, Secretary

Next meeting: February 1, 2017
